

Classify:

To arrange or sort objects, events, or living things

Communicate:

To use words, pictures, charts and graphs to share information

Estimate:

To guess an object's size, mass, or temperature will measure.

Data:

Scientists collect data, or information, from their observations.

Variables:

What changes in an experiment

Models:

Something you can touch or make to help you plan an investigation.
(ex. globe)

Infer:

Using two pieces of information that you already know to form a new idea

Predict:

To make a smart guess of what is going to happen.

Observe:

To use your five senses to gather information